Girls' winter track

Meet of Champions—Four runners from Souderton participated in the leagues' Meet Of Champions. They qualified by being in the top 20 in their events through the indoor season. Souderton's league is composed of over 90 teams. Kristin Smith earned a second place award in the high jump, Chelsea Hicks earned fifth place in the triple jump and a trip to the state meet by meeting the qualifying distance in that event. Hicks also placed ninth in the hurdles, she had qualified for states in that event earlier in the season.

Kelsey Cameron ran the 800-meters and Katherine VanHise competed the pole vault competition.

The state meet will take place at Penn State University's Multi-Sport facility on Saturday. Smith and Hicks will represent Souderton.
